The month of October is dedicated to the Holy Rosary. The Memorial of Our Lady of the Rosary is celebrated on October 7. October falls during the liturgical season known as Ordinary Time, which is represented by the liturgical color green. This symbol of hope is the color of the sprouting seed and arouses in the faithful the hope of reaping the eternal harvest of heaven, especially the hope of a glorious resurrection. It is used in the offices and Masses of Ordinary Time.

The Four Cardinal Virtues (part 1)

Human virtues form the soul with habits of mind and will that support moral behavior, control passions and avoid sin. Virtues guide us in our conduct according to the dictates of faith and reason. This leads us toward freedom that is based on self-control and toward joy in living in a good moral life. These human virtues include compassion, responsibility, a sense of duty, self-discipline and restraint, honesty, loyalty, friendship, courage and persistence. The Church groups these human virtues around what are called the Cardinal Virtues. The Cardinal Virtues are Prudence, Justice, Fortitude and Temperance.

Temperance

Fortitude

Prudence

Justice

The word cardinal comes from the Latin word cardo, meaning “hinge”. All virtues are related to or hinged to one of the four Cardinal Virtues. A virtue is a habitual and firm disposition to do good. The Catechism of the Catholic Church says “virtue allows a person not only to perform good acts, but to give the best of him or herself” (CCC n. 1803)

We will begin this month with the Cardinal Virtue of Prudence.

The Catechism n. 1806 tells us that “Prudence is the virtue that disposed practical reason to discern our true good in every circumstance and to choose the right means of achieving it”. The Catechism utilizes scripture when talking about prudence. The Book of Proverbs 14:15 says “The naïve believe everything, but the shrewd watch their steps”. In other words, he looks where he is going.

St. Thomas Aquinas tells us the Prudence is “right reason for the right action”. That the actions we take need to be done for the from the view of avoiding evil and morally supporting the greater good. Prudence guides the other virtues by setting rule. Prudence guides the judgement of conscience. With the help of this virtue, we apply moral principles to cases without error and overcome doubts about the good to achieve and evil to avoid.

This month, pray that this Cardinal Virtue may be emblazoned in all our hearts and minds. We need this virtue so very much in our lives and in the world. May we come to be true examples of utilizing prudence in all we do to others.

Prudence

Guardian Angels

Angels are servants and messengers from God. "Angel" in Greek means messenger. In unseen ways the angels help us on our earthly pilgrimage by assisting us in work and study, helping us in temptation and protecting us from physical danger.

The idea that each soul has assigned to it a personal guardian angel has been long accepted by the Church and is a truth of our faith. From the Gospel of today's liturgy we read: "See that you do not despise one of these little ones, for I say to you that their angels in heaven always look upon the face of my heavenly Father" (Matthew 18:10).

The Catechism of the Catholic Church states that "the existence of the spiritual, non-corporeal beings that Sacred Scripture usually calls 'angels' is a truth of faith (328)." From our birth until our death, man is surrounded by the protection and intercession of angels, particularly our guardian angel: "Beside each believer stands an angel as protector and shepherd leading him to life (336)." The Church thanks God for our helpers, the angels, particularly on this feast day and September 29 which is the feast of Saint Michael, Saint Gabriel, and Saint Raphael, archangels. Today's feast appeared in Spain during the sixteenth century. It was extended to the universal Church and made obligatory in 1670.

Be alert in your every action as one should be who is accompanied by angels in all your ways, for that mission has been enjoined upon them. In whatever lodging, in whatever nook or corner you may find yourself, cherish a reverence for your guardian angel. In his presence do not dare to do anything you would not do in mine. Or do you doubt his presence because you do not see him? Would it really help if you did hear him, or touch him, or smell him? Remember, there are realities whose existence has not been proven by mere sight.

Brethren, we will love God's angels with a most affectionate love; for they will be our heavenly co-heirs some day, these spirits who now are sent by the Father to be our protectors and our guides. With such bodyguards, what are we to fear? They can neither be subdued nor deceived; nor is there any possibility at all that they should go astray who are to guard us in all our ways. They are trustworthy, they are intelligent, they are strong – why, then, do we tremble? We need only to follow them, remain close to them, and we will dwell in the protection of the Most High God. So as often as you sense the approach of any grave temptation or some crushing sorrow hangs over you, invoke your protector, your leader, your helper in every situation. Call out to him and say: Lord, save us, we are perishing. —St. Bernard

Patron: Spanish police officers.

Symbols: usually portrayed as beardless, sexless beings, winged, human in form and barefooted, Usually carrying objects such as a pilgrim's staff, scroll, book, a sceptre or a sword.

Each person on earth has a guardian angel who watches over him and helps him to attain his salvation. It has been a common theological opinion that this angelical guardianship begins at the moment of birth; prior to this, the child would be protected by the mother's guardian angel. But this is not certain, and since we now know that the soul is infused at the moment of conception, it may be that the angelic guardianship also begins at that moment. In any case, this protection continues throughout our whole life and ceases only when our probation on earth ends, namely, at the moment of death. Our guardian angel accompanies our soul to purgatory or heaven, and becomes our coheir in the heavenly kingdom.

October 2022

October is here. Time for pumpkin spice lattes and Halloween costumes. Time to get started on that Christmas shopping to unless you put it off until the last minute like I do. September was a busy month for the Knights. On the 3rd we had our Labor Day pork roasts sales and with the help of the Women's Club we raised over $1100 for the Aid and Support after Pregnancy program or ASAP for short. About 51 people stopped by and got a plate from the kitchen and some stayed to enjoy some fellowship. We sold quite a few whole roasts as well.

On Sept. 11th we had another homeless meal at St. Patrick's downtown. We had smoked some extra pork during the Labor Day bash and put them to good use for this meal. We topped it of with potato salad and beans, and a dessert. The folks we served were very appreciative and the support staff at the Church do a great job as they provide the utensils, packaging, and drinks. They also have a nice kitchen to work out of. We had some leftovers that were taken to the Sisters of Charity located not far from the Church. Those little piggies went a long way.

We cooked a dinner for our friends at the Kiwanis Club of Millington for their annual Club Officer Installation on Sept. the 15th. This was the first time we've done this since 2019. This was a fundraiser for our Coats for Kids program which coincides with what the Kiwanis Club is all about, a global organization of volunteers dedicated to world one child and one community at a time. Some of our in the Kiwanis Club so there is a great relationship between  changing the Knights are also the two clubs.

The Methodist Food Pantry has expanded their schedule to be open on the third Saturday of each month so they can serve more clients. Some Knights and their Wives went on Sept. 17 to support this need. Clients call in and their order is taken, filled, and delivered to their car. Its great to work together with another Church so that those in need have this resource to help them in their time of need. Thanks to all who donate to the St. William food pantry as this food ends up at the Methodist food pantry.

Also, on the 17th we had a blood drive at St. William. We had a great turnout with 17 donors. Thanks to all who showed up to support this event and those who worked behind the scenes to make it all happen. Watch the bulletin for our next one on December 10th and donate if you can. Great job St. William!

This Sunday Oct. 2nd the Knights will have a soccer challenge. The challenge is open to all Boys and Girls ages 9-14. We will meet at the Church at 12:45 and proceed to a local field. Bring the kids and join us for a great time.

October is respect for life month and the Knights service on Sat. Oct. the 8th after the 4:30 Mass. for human life, the spiritual renewal of each nation Guadalupe. Hope to see you there.

The Holy Father's Intentions for the Month of October 2022

A Church Open to Everyone

We pray for the Church; ever faithful to, and courageous in preaching the Gospel, may the Church be a community of solidarity, fraternity and welcome, always living in an atmosphere of synodality.

The Great Adventure Bible Timeline, is a ground-breaking approach to understanding salvation history developed by renowned Catholic Bible teacher Jeff Cavins.

The Great Adventure Bible Timeline Philosophy:

- Identifies the 14 narrative books that tell the story of Scripture from beginning to end.

The remaining “supplemental books” of the Bible are then contextualized within the storyline of the 14 narrative books.

- Divides the Bible into 12 time periods, identified by different colors, which serve as “chapters” in Salvation History.

How to Use the Reading Plan:

This reading plan covers the entire Catholic Bible in 365 days. Readings in bold refer to the 14 narrative books of the Bible.

The Psalms and Proverbs are spread out throughout the year to provide additional opportunity for prayer, reflection, and practical wisdom. The Psalms in italics have a particular connection to that day’s other readings.
